MY SCHOOL DC 9TH-12TH?

My School DC (MySchoolDC) is the official website for the DC Public Schools (DCPS) where students can search for schools, view school data, and more. The website offers various resources and tools for parents, students, and educators to make informed decisions about school choice. The site includes detailed school information, including school rankings, test scores, and student demographics. It also provides tools for finding schools that fit specific criteria, such as proximity to home, academic focus, and more. MySchoolDC aims to empower families to make educated decisions about their child’s education by providing transparent and comprehensive data. Parents can search for schools using various filters and compare data across different schools to find the best fit for their child. MySchoolDC also provides resources for students and educators, including school calendars, news updates, and other important information. Overall, MySchoolDC is a valuable resource for anyone looking to make informed decisions about school choice in DCPS.
